Leave a Legacy

Keep the wheels of the bright yellow bus turning

Leave a gift in your will to your local community transport

'Bob the Bus' is a charity – that's why it needs your support.

As an independent charity, 'Bob the Bus' relies on the support of members of the public - people like you. By adding us to your Will, you can help secure not just the charities future, but the future of your community.

Every adult should have a Will, regardless of their age, income or wealth – it is the only way of ensuring your wishes are met after your death. And yet 1 in 5 people in the UK die without one, potentially causing unnecessary complications for their loved ones at a difficult time.

Gifts left to charities in Wills – usually known as legacies – don't need to be large, and they don't prevent you from taking care of your family and loved ones. In fact, a legacy to a charity can ease the burden of Inheritance Tax.

As we move into the future, legacies are becoming an increasingly vital form of income for all charities.

If you have a Will, changing it to include your local community transport service is straightforward. If you don't have a Will, having one written is a lot easier than you think

Your legacy will help us to keep the wheels of 'Bob the Bus' turning

A legacy to 'Bob the Bus' benefits you and the whole community

How do I make a Will? It's important that you use the services of a solicitor.

What if I already have a Will? Your solicitor can add a legacy to 'Bob the Bus' in your Will with a written instruction called a codicil.

Do I have enough assets? Most people are surprised by how much their assets add up to. You don't need to be wealthy to make a Will – or leave a legacy.

After taking care of your loved ones, you can then choose to leave a Residuary legacy (a portion of what is left after all your other commitments have been met) – or a Pecuniary legacy [a gift of a specific amount] to 'Bob the Bus'

What about Inheritance Tax? Leaving a gift to a charity such as Totnes Community Bus Association can lower the Inheritance Tax payable on your estate. Your solicitor can answer any questions you have about Inheritance Tax.

What else should I tell my solicitor? Simply that you wish your legacy to go to 'Bob the Bus'
